WHISTLEBLOWER

by Helen Webster

AVAILABLE NOVEMBER 2022

WHISTLEBLOWER, Book Two of the Lucy trilogy, will be available in November 2022.

It tells the story of a young woman who has already escaped the influence and traumatizing actions of a cult leader in her small Alberta hometown. In WHISTLEBLOWER, she has changed her name and appearance, managed to get a university education, and now works for a large children's charity in Toronto. She suspects malpractice at the senior management level there, and knowing the harsh consequences often suffered by whistleblowers, must decide whether or not to report the wrongdoing. Additionally, she fears that the resulting publicity may allow those from her past to find her.

Writer and artist, Helen Webster has lived, raised a family, and worked in Nanaimo for forty-plus years. She has been a school administrator, and a teacher at all levels, including at Vancouver Island University, is a member of the Federation of Canadian Artists, and is an active member of the British Columbia Federation of Writers.

Helen has written and published five books and is currently working on her sixth, the final book in the Lucy trilogy.

Helen enjoys sharing her editing expertise with local writing groups and works as a freelance editor contracted to Silverdog Publishing, located in Lantzville, BC.
